Marketing Your Property /

Our multi-faceted marketing, tailored to your property, aims to source suitable tenants within the shortest time frame. Full property particulars including eye-catching photographs and floorplans are forwarded swiftly to our registered database of prospective Tenants and marketed through our website and leading industry platforms such as 'Rightmove' and 'Onthemarket'

As many Tenants start their home search with a tour of their preferred area, our striking individual 'To Let' boards often play a strong role in generating interest. In addition, regular local newspaper and digital advertising ensures maximum regional exposure.

We accompany all viewings as required, providing you with security, peace of mind and enabling us to meet prospective tenants to assess their character, circumstances and suitability. We can then ensure that any applicant meets with both our and your expectations and we are on hand to negotiate the best terms of tenancy on your behalf.

Tenant Referencing & Rental Guarantee /

Our Tenant vetting procedure is based on the highest industry standards and includes identity checks, credit checks and character references from suitable reliable third party sources such as employers, accountants, solicitors and previous landlords so that you can be sure of your Tenant's background.

Preparing The Property & Inventories /

Good quality Tenants are attracted to good quality properties. It may seem obvious, but it is vitally important from the beginning to ensure that your property is viewed to the best advantage. In effect, this means attending to any outstanding maintenance jobs prior to marketing, where possible, and presenting your property attractively.

At the start of the tenancy the benchmark is set for the standards required throughout the tenancy, and by presenting your property, including the grounds, in the best condition, you put yourself in the driving seat for ensuring its presentation at the end of the tenancy.

Through experience, we have found that both Landlords and Tenants enjoy the assurance that a comprehensive inventory provides. Just before the commencement of the tenancy, we will draw up a detailed document listing descriptions for each room, covering everything from ceilings to floors, including the condition of the décor, cleanliness, any defects etc. This is supported by a full compliment of digital photographs, meter readings and a record of the keys supplied.

We pride ourselves on the comprehensive nature of our inventories and schedule of conditions, so should there be any disagreements at the end of the tenancy, you have an in depth document to prove how your property looked initially. Without this evidence, in the event of a dispute with your Tenants, you may find yourself in a weaker legal position. Whilst this service is not included in our "Let Only" package, we do strongly suggest that an inventory is prepared on all properties and we would be happy to arrange this on your behalf.

Safety Regulations /

There are legal obligations on all Landlords to ensure that they provide their property in the safest of conditions for their Tenants.

We would be happy to arrange for these important checks to be undertaken on your behalf. Should you prefer to attend to these matters yourself, we will still legally need to hold copies of the safety certificates.

Gas Safety Check /

Under the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 all gas appliances and flues in rented accommodation must be checked for safety within 12 months of being installed, and thereafter at least every 12 months by a competent engineer (ie a GAS SAFE registered gas installer).

Energy Performance Certificates (EPC) /

Energy Performance Certificates are now required by law for all new tenancies and have to be in place before any marketing can commence. We therefore recommend that this is organised at the earliest opportunity.

As with the safety regulations, we would be happy to arrange a surveyor who can undertake this work on your behalf or alternatively you may choose to arrange this certificate yourself. For most properties the cost involved is less than £100.

All residential rental properties must be a minimum of a band E or in receipt of an exemption, for instance in the case of some listed buildings.

Electrical Safety /

Under the Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 2020, and certain other regulations, electrical appliances and equipment provided in tenanted premises must be safe. It is therefore necessary to ensure that all electrical items, plugs and leads are completely safe and undamaged, and to remove/replace any faulty items.

Smoke Alarms /

Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Regulations became law on 1 October 2015 meaning that all properties in England – whether existing tenancies or new tenancies – will need to comply. All properties must be equipped with a smoke alarm on each storey of the premises where there is a room used as living accommodation. A carbon monoxide detector must be supplied in any room in the premises which is used as living accommodation and contains a solid fuel burning combustion appliance. This applies to any wood burning stove or coal fires. However, we also strongly advise that a detector is placed in all properties with gas heating or appliances.

Legionella /

The Health & Safety Executive have issued a code of practice for assessing the risk of Legionella in residential property. We recommend that as a Landlord you should carry out a risk assessment of your property prior to letting especially if there are open water tanks, redundant pipes, cooling systems or a swimming pool.

Furniture & Furnishings Fire & Safety Regulations

The Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988 (as amended in 1989, 1993 and 2010) set levels of fire resistance for domestic upholstered furniture, furnishings and other products containing upholstery, which must be adhered to for all items in a rented property.

The regulations apply to all upholstered furniture, beds, headboards and mattresses, sofa-beds, futons and other convertibles, nursery furniture, garden furniture suitable for use in a dwelling, scatter cushions, pillows and non- original covers for furniture. They do not apply to antique furniture or furniture made before 1950, bedcovers including duvets, loose covers for mattresses, pillowcases, curtains, carpets or sleeping bags. Items that comply should have a suitable permanent label attached. Non- compliant items must be removed before a tenancy commences.

Utilities

We generally advise that rentals are agreed exclusive of all outgoings.

On leasehold properties, the Landlord remains responsible for any ground rent, maintenance and service charges. With all tenancies the owner continues to be responsible for all mortgage payments and buildings insurance.

For properties under our full management service, we will notify utility companies such as gas, electric and water and the local Council Tax department, with regard to the change of occupier and meter readings. Due to data protection regulations, we are unable to attend to telephone accounts as only the customer is permitted to make any alterations.

Repair, Upkeep & Gardening

It is in all parties' interests to ensure that your property is well maintained. The key to achieving this is often via preventative maintenance and a periodic plan of works e.g. boiler servicing, external painting etc. Repair costs for the building, heating system, water system, appliances etc. are the responsibility of the Landlord.

Under our full management service, we will attend to repairs on your behalf, subject to your requirements. We can also organise routine maintenance works, fair wear and tear repairs, and gas safety checks etc. with our local knowledge providing a wealth of helpful contacts in most relevant trades. Alternatively, you may prefer to use contractors you know, who are already familiar with your property. We ask you to confirm the level of our service at the outset of the tenancy. It should be noted that under the new 'fair contract terms' legislation, it is deemed as unacceptable for a Tenant to be made responsible for such items as tree surgery, hedge cutting or where special machinery or knowledge is required.

We can arrange as part of the tenancy agreement, for the Tenant to be responsible for routine gardening, however, if your garden is particularly large, complex, or of high value to you we strongly advise including the services of a gardener in the rental. At the start of the letting, the grounds should be presented in the tidy condition that you expect to continue, allowing for normal growth and waste.

Income Tax /

When resident in the UK, it is entirely the Landlord's responsibility to inform the Inland Revenue of rental income received, and to pay any tax due. Where the Landlord is resident outside of the UK during a tenancy, unless an exemption certificate is held, we as the Landlord's agent are obliged to retain and forward to the Inland Revenue on a quarterly basis, an amount equal to the basic rate of income tax from rental received, less certain allowable expenses. An application form for exemption from such deductions is available from your local Tax Office.

Insurance /

Landlords remain responsible for insuring their property and contents. Should your property be let unfurnished, we would still strongly advise that limited contents insurance is taken out to cover items such as your carpets and kitchen fittings etc.

It is also important that you notify your insurance company that the property is to be let, as unfortunately some companies will not cover you under these circumstances.

Deposits /

All deposits taken for Assured Shorthold Tenancies must be placed under the protection of a government approved Tenancy Deposit Protection Scheme.

A Landlord who does not do so will be breaking the law and could be made to refund the full deposit to the Tenant along with an amount equivalent to three times the deposit. They will also not be entitled to gain possession of their property under the relatively straightforward procedure of a Section 21, under the Housing Act of 1988.

Our membership of ARLA Propertymark ensures we are compliant with all approved industry codes of conduct and that we can offer a government approved Deposit Protection Scheme at reduced rates. In the event of a deposit dispute at the end of the tenancy, either the Landlord, Tenant or the Letting Agent can refer the case to an independent case examiner (ICE) free of charge. The ICE will then use the inventory and any additional details provided to decide if any deductions from the deposit are fair and reasonable.

In such an event, a comprehensive inventory becomes paramount in protecting your property.
